Spring in Province, a time of renewal & celebration!

Michael and I would like to thank everyone for their support and patronage over the past four months. It has been such a joy seeing the excitement that Province has generated. We look forward to continuing to excite and tempt you with our new arrivals.

Rooms, both indoor and out, are portraits of our times, as we instantly project ourselves into them, assess their comfort level and measure their possibilities.

Browse in store, the informal mix of plunging chandeliers, jewel-like renderings of rooms and their furnishings are, at the very least, delightful, signifying artifacts full of tips to try at home. Our pieces are generally irresistible and can be adapted to various themes - revealing a unique sense of style, more than one might have ever imagined. Thanks to an interest in faraway places, furniture and decorative objects, the notion of home being a private domain that both protects and expresses the self can be completely indulged.

Unassumingly, spaces take on beautiful yet useful, tables, cushy armchairs and adorable collectables, gently tucked into a corner for greater intimacy, such resplendency casts a spell. Who dares resist the feel of sinking into the chaise lounge or being perched on the sofa with a book?
